BUSINESS MODEL

All Practitioners work on a self employed basis, renting treatment room space from GNHC.

The rooms are rented on a per SESSION basis.

SESSIONS

Practitioners make a commitment to book regular weekly sessions (each session comprising of four consecutive working hours) called BOOKED SESSIONS and to pay rent for those sessions.

The working day is divided into 3 sessions:

- a) Morning session 08:30-12:30
- b) Afternoon session 13:00-17:00
- c) Evening session 17:30-21:30

ROOM RENTAL

Room rental is as follows:

- A Talking Therapies - £55.00 per Booked Session,
- B Body Workers - £60.00 per Booked Session

All rent is payable weekly (in arrears) by direct debit

BOND

The first two booked sessions each require a bond payment of: A - £220.00 and B - £240.00 (4 weeks room rental fee)

The bond is held in a separate bank account and will be refunded (minus any outstanding money due to GNHC) if you either:

- a) Relinquish a booked session or;
- b) Cease practising at GNHC.

BANK HOLIDAYS

On Bank Holidays the Centre is open for business as usual and rent for Booked Sessions is due.

INTERNET ACCESS

Free internet access is provided for use by practitioners to use their own laptop, tablet or notepad (not GNHC computers) and subject to reasonable use for data downloads.

WORKING WEEK

The first day of the GNHC working week is Sunday and the last working day is Saturday.

CHILDREN IN CENTRAL SPACE

For health and safety reasons children under the age of 10 cannot be left unattended in the reception area unless accompanied by another adult.

Unaccompanied children are the responsibility of the practitioner and must be taken into the treatment room with their parent or carer.

CODE OF CONDUCT

With regard to their professional relationship with their clients, GNHC expects all practitioners to conform to the code of conduct of the UK regulatory body of which they are a member.

Notwithstanding the aforementioned professional codes of conduct, and with specific regard to their business relationship with GNHC, we expect all practitioners to conform to the British Register of Complementary Practitioners (BRCP) Code of Ethics and Practice.

The BRCP Code of Ethics and Practice may be viewed at:

<http://www.icnm.org.uk/>

FIRST AID CERTIFICATION

All practitioners are required to hold current First Aid certificates. First Aid courses can be arranged by GNHC.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Grievance procedures are in place for:

Complaints from clients (displayed in reception area).

Grievance procedure for practitioners (available from the Practice Manager).

NOTICE PERIOD

One month's notice in writing is required.

PLANNED ABSENCE

GNHC requests one month's notice in writing of planned absence by practitioners.

PRACTITIONER RESPONSIBILITIES

Practitioners are responsible for:

- Ensuring their Diary entries are accurate and complete.
- Liaising with their clients/patients regarding cancelling or moving appointments
- Checking their session start time on the online booking system at www.practicepal.co.uk
- Managing their own appointment deposits & payments from clients/patients.
- Leaving their room clean and tidy, emptying their bin and ready for the next practitioner,
- Managing the behaviour of children attending any appointment.

THERAPIES PRACTISED

Practitioners may only practise those therapies for which they hold:

1. Recognised professional qualifications.
2. Membership of a recognised UK professional regulating body.
3. Professional indemnity insurance.

The following conditions apply to any proposed new therapies:

- i. No additional therapy may be practised without prior consultation with, and the approval of, the Director GNHC.
- ii. Any proposed change to the therapies practised by a practitioner at GNHC, and subsequent Director approval, must be made in writing.
- iii. Conditions 1, 2 and 3 as detailed above are met.
